

Floats, Boats & BBQ – an Idaho Pool Party!

Thursday, May 31st @ 5:30 – 8:30pm

Members, Family and Friends! Spend a warm afternoon & evening by the cool waters at Discovery Park, with Bogus Basin Ski Club & Alpenglow, Chuck Cremer.

PADDLING FUN: There will be demo kayaks and Stand-Up Paddle boards with boat experts from Alpenglow, or bring your own flotilla, flippers or floaty! There will also be games for adults and kids (including volleyball and Bocce ball), and dogs on leash are welcome as well.

EATS & DRINKS: Big Bertha will be cooking hamburgers, hot dogs, and brats. Soft drinks, water, and beer will be served.

WHERE: Lucky Peak State Park, Sandy Point Unit Amphitheater, right below Lucky Peak Dam 9725 E. Hwy 21, Boise, ID 83716. (From Hwy 21, Turn off at the second exit, right hand side into park.) Look for the ski club wind blades at the grassy amphitheater. Bring your own chairs. Due to the Boise River being too high and construction at the Discovery Park Unit, the venue was changed to the Sandy Point Unit Amphitheater location.

CHARGES: $5.00 for members / $10.00 for families. State Park fee is $5 per car load or FREE if you have a state park pass.

For more information & RSVP – Contact Michael at
(208) 703-0444, or membership@BogusBasinSkiClub.org

Important message

All children 14 and under must be accompanied by an adult and everyone is required to wear a life vest while using a boat on the water. Life vests will be made available by Alpenglow, or please bring your own. <http://www.alpenglowidaho.com/> or 208-331-BOAT (2628)