BBSC Holiday Party
December 18, 2010, 7pm - 11pm

Join us for the annual club holiday party! We are reducing the cost from $25 to $20 if you RSVP before December 10. If you RSVP after December 10, the cost will be $25 per person and if you RSVP after December 14, the cost is $50 per person. Please send your check to Alicia Culbertson, 708 S. Granite Way, Boise, ID 83712. You can also RSVP to via email: aliciaid2002@yahoo.com.

This will be the last time in the year to join old friends and maybe meet some new ones. The holiday party is always festive, with tasty appetizers, beer or wine and dancing. Music will be provided by J.R. and The Stingrays.

This year the event will be at the Boise Police Association Clubhouse off Denton Street/Cole Road, across from Boise Towne Square Mall. The address is 7311 W Potomac Drive.

I’ll be asking for volunteers to help with raffle baskets, making desserts, shopping, set up, take down. Please volunteer to help me out! It’s the last party of the year. Don’t miss it.

Alicia Culbertson, Past President
From the President

Hola,

About 11 club members, along with other friends, just got back from Puerto Vallarta, Mexico. Although this was not a club sponsored event, many club members joined in. This trip started out as a birthday celebration for Dave and Ranae Kopet having milestone birthdays this year. From there is just grew until there were 17 of us staying in an all-inclusive resort. I have to say, we had a blast! Drinks by the pool, swimming in the ocean, water volleyball, dancing at Club Nitro, riding wave runners, snorkeling, a trip on a pirate boat, and even a bus trip to the tequila factory.

As you can see from this picture, I started my vacation off with checking off one thing from my “Bucket List”: parasailing. I didn’t let myself think about it long before putting down my money or I would have talked myself out of it. Before I knew it, I was strapped into a harness and pulled by a rope attached to a speed boat up to several hundred feet. On the take off all I could do was scream, “OMG, OMG, OMG” over and over. By the time I got back and landed on the beach (only about 10 minutes, thank God), my heart was beating so fast. I was very nervous about the landing. But these nice Mexican boys caught me effortlessly and set me down on the sand. I think I talked the rest of the group out of doing it because I couldn’t really say I loved the adrenaline rush, but I definitely feel like it was an accomplishment, something I will never forget.

If I can tell new members anything about the benefit of joining this club and becoming active, is that you will make friends that will last a lifetime. If you have joined recently, be active. Attend activities and volunteer. A great way to get to know people is to go on a trip. Tahoe is in late January through early February and is a fantastic deal. Don’t miss out on this or any of the clubs activities. You won’t want to miss the winter festival in Hyde Park and the holiday party, both in December. Or just come down to the last Boise State football game tailgate on December 4. Hope to see you there!

Skiers are ready to ski. Memberships have been renewed. With that comes the question, “What about Life Flight?” For several years members of the Bogus Basin Ski Club have been offered a discounted rate with the Life Flight Network program. Our rates and method of enrollment has not changed. As a BBSC member we can join Life Flight for a $35.00 annual fee. The application for membership can be found on line at www.bogusbasinskiclub.com. It can also be obtained from our membership director Nancy Cenell. The completed application and fees are mailed directly to Life Flight Network as indicated on the application. Coverage is for 1 full year and covers you and your eligible household members. This includes a spouse (or domestic partner), and unmarried dependents living with you (under the age of 23) whom you claim of your income tax return.

As a member of the Life Flight Network program you will receive membership cards, key tag labels, and a Life Flight decal sticker. Peace of mind is really what is being purchased in case of that medical emergency which could require transport to a medical facility. Any questions about the program can be addressed by calling 1 800-574-9464 or visiting their website, www.lifeflight.org.

Request a copy of the application from Nancy at ncenell@yahoo.com. Have a fun and safe ski season.
We regret to inform our members that the Sun Valley trip is being cancelled. The reason for the cancellation is that not enough people have sent in a deposit to make the trip feasible.

For those who purchased raffle tickets for a free trip to Sun Valley, the winner will be given a $575 gift card to Sun Valley to be used any time this year. The lucky winner will be drawn at the Winter Festival in Hyde Park December 11. Raffle tickets are still available and can be purchased the day of the drawing.

Refunds are to be mailed to those who had paid their deposit. If you have any questions, please email me (nangell@idahopower.com).

Sun Valley Trip Cancelled
by Natalie Angell

We are going to depart Boise on Sunday, January 30, 2011 and return Friday, February 4, 2011. Travel will be by Boise-Winnemucca Stages and will take about seven hours with a short stop along the way. Rooms will be provided at the Silver Legacy in downtown Reno. We will ski four different mountains and the mix right now are Heavenly, Kirkwood, Squaw Valley and Mount Rose. As of this date, the group rates for lift tickets are not finalized so we may substitute a different ski resort if it is priced better. We will return Friday morning and arrive in Boise about 5:00 pm.

The cost is $525 per person and you get transportation, a double room and lift tickets. There may be lift ticket discounts available depending on your age. At some resorts there is a little advantage to buying a senior (65 to 70) lift ticket compared to a discounted group ticket. If you plan to travel with a non-skiier then deduct $220 from the price.

Right now, we have 25 people who have remitted a deposit and we need at least 15 more by January 1, 2011 to make the trip. So if you plan to make the trip, get your deposit of $30 in and if you have already signed up, ask a friend to join you.

A sign-up form can be found on page 17 of this issue of The Mogul. Send your check (made out to Bogus Basin Ski Club) to Tyler Wymond at 2715 Crescent Rim Dr. Boise, ID 83706. If you have questions call Tyler at 861-5992.

Bogus Basin Ski Club • A club for all seasons
The Bogus Basin Ski Club, in conjunction with Bogus Basin and Hyde Park merchants, will host the first annual Winter Festival. The featured event will be a true rail jam on 13th Street between Eastman and Alturas. Fun, food and beverages will be available. The club will feature an Ullr Festival with games and prizes. A children’s costume contest take place at 1pm. Judging will be done by King and Queen Ullr. They will lead us in Ullr chant and the games will take place in the back parking lot 4-6pm. We’ll have plenty of ski shot opportunities for everyone. The Boise State Hockey club will be doing exhibitions in the street during the day as well.

This is a family fun opportunity with lots of activities for the kids. So come on over and join in on the fun!

Ski Swap 2010 by Jane Gabbert

Once again another ski swap has come and gone. Lots of items sold and super scores were made on new gear. My many thanks to Paul Markowitz and his truck for hauling all the tables, displays and stuff that make up the Ski Club booth. We enticed a good number of new members with all our activities, discounted season passes, promoted the Warren Miller movie, and sold raffle tickets. Many thanks to Bob Horton, Paul Markowitz, Bob Running, Cherry Woodbury, Paul Campbell, Karen Norris, Terry Cassity, David Wilkinson, Will Wagner, Liz McWhorter, Stu Rich, Mary Pribble, John Hood, Janet Stone, Debi Ziegler, Linda Rawlins, Natalie Angell, Rebecca Lang, Tom Cochran, Pam Fisher, Joyce Clard Fred Uranga, Donna Wilson, Rob Wilson, Fred Brenier, Michael Bouton, Larry Crockett and Ruby Andridge for donating their time to work in the booth. All your names will be entered in volunteers drawings for either members or Board Members.

Three pairs of tickets to the Friday showing of the Warren Miller movie were raffled off and won by David Pilliod, Madonna Lengerich, and Chris Trellan. They were excited to get the news.

Give Back: The Art of Volunteering by Fred Uranga

Being a volunteer is fun and rewarding. You will meet new people and increase your interest in club events. I suggest you volunteer at a short term event first to get your confidence up. Don’t worry about making mistakes. Everyone works together to make the event a success.

Each time a club member volunteers to work on an event, their name is submitted by that event chairperson into the annual lottery pool. The winner’s name will be drawn at the annual general membership meeting in March 2011. The prize for the 2010-2011 year is $150 in Bogus Basin Bucks. In each issue you will see the event chairperson asking for volunteers. Call them or contact the social director, Natalie Angell, at nangell@idahopower.com. Good luck!
Last Boise State Tailgate

Boise State's last home football game of the season will be December 4. They will be taking on Utah State. Join the club for a tailgate and barbecue in space 113. Look for our tall blue and white flag in the Stadium parking lot just across from the Jackson’s store on Broadway. Watch the game on our neighbor’s TV with us if you don’t have tickets.

Tailgate party fun!

BBSC members goof off at the club’s tailgate party at the Boise State versus Hawaii game. The Hawaiian burgers were terrific and those that attended were treated like Warriors.

Join in on the fun December 4. It’s the final tailgate of the season and you don’t want to miss it!
Scholar Dollars
by Tyler Wymond

The Bogus Basin Ski Club Board of Directors has approved funds to match club member’s contributions to the Bogus Basin Mountain Scholar Dollar program up to $2,500. This is a great opportunity for the club and its members to share the passion we have for the sport by introducing it to a younger generation.

The Scholar Dollars program organizes school classes from grades 3 through 12 for a night of skiing or snow boarding. More than 12,000 students participate each season and 60% are new to the sport. That is over 7,000 beginners each year. Bogus Basin subsidizes the costs so that it is affordable and no youngster is turned away regardless of ability to pay. I can’t think of a better program or way to introduce young people to the sport. For $25 a student gets transportation, a lift ticket, rental gear and a lesson. This seems so affordable but for some kids it is too costly. The Scholar Dollar funds are used for those who can’t afford it.

Let’s give Bogus Basin credit and continued support for this endeavor. Bogus Basin is dedicated to affordable winter recreation and this program introduces new skiers and riders to the sport. In 2009, the club and its members gave $2,800 and followed in 2010 with $4,000. That means 270 kids were able to ski or board who otherwise wouldn’t have had a chance. What a wonderful gift!

The club’s goal for 2011 is to get a contribution from at least 100 members of at least $25. That level of participation will raise $5,000 for the kids. For a tax deductible contribution of $25, $50 or $100, you can share the passion you have for the sport with a youngster. A $50 contribution means $100 goes to the Scholar Dollars program and four students get to participate that otherwise would not. What a way to compound the effect of your donation! After taxes your net cost will range from $33 to $43 depending on your tax bracket.

Look for an opportunity to give at the ski club functions like the holiday party or Crab Crack or a ski trip. Or, you can send a check to Tyler Wymond, 2715 Crescent Rim Drive, Boise, ID 83706 made out to Bogus Basin Scholar Dollars and he will collect them and deliver them to the ski area. We present the total of the donations to Mike Shirley at the annual meeting in March and you don’t want to miss it.
GREASE! I’m sure the wonderful maintenance crews at our ski resorts have the lift wheels loaded with lots of the great necessary evil…grease!

Anyone who has been skiing for any length of time has experienced great drips of the black stuff on our ski clothes and can notice streaks of it on the snow by the lift towers. This is especially for the person who bought my yellow one piece Marker suit at the Ski Swap. You are going to need this!

Many of you have seen this tip before but it’s a good reminder and will be especially useful for those new members of the Club who don’t know what to do when their new jacket is covered in grease. And I have been told by the cleaners that they can’t get it out.

Our dear departed Emery Connor gave me this tip once while I was griping about grease while riding up the chairlift with him. He said to go to the automotive section at Walmart and get a short, white plastic can of GOOP. It’s a white degreaser of some sort. Put your jacket or ski suit down on your counter or ironing board (if anyone still has one of these) with a towel under it. Take a used toothbrush and a little GOOP and some water and brush it into the grease spot. I mix a little OxyClean with it as well. Scrub it in really well and let it sit for awhile.

Then put it in the washer with regular detergent and warm water and let it go. Then run it through again with no soap and hang it up to dry. Voila! No more grease! Happy degreasing!
Bogus Basin Ski Club is setting up a ski trip to Northern Italy for March 2012. The reason we are trying to plan this far out is to give everyone time to plan. I cannot get rates for 2012 yet but based on this year’s rates we are looking at around $2000.

Ed Cardoza sent an email dated October 27, that he was now home, for good (hopefully) after spending 46 days in St. Alphonsus Hospital. For over two months we have followed Ed’s recovery from diphtheria and the resulting complications. Ed was released from the hospital once before and had to be readmitted for falling blood pressure. Ed’s good friend, Fred Bernier, has visited Ed and says Ed is very weak and tires quickly. Meanwhile Joyce Peterson is living in the Boise area with her daughter and providing transportation for Ed. You can contact Ed at evcardo@msn.com

Tim Flood, as you will recall, in July 2010, suffered kidney failure and was treated at the local VA hospital. Tim had follow up rehabilitation and released to his daughter around August 23, 2010. A follow upmail indicted that his rehabilitation is going much slower then he had anticipated. This writer has written to Tim, however, has not heard back from him. While I was working with Jane Gabbert in the club booth at the ski swap, she mentioned that she had heard from Tim. In substance, Tim was going to a VA hospital for follow up evaluation. Lets hope no news is good news.

Richard S. “Dick” Vandenburg, age 80, passed away on November 7, 2010 due to complications from prostate cancer, which he valiantly fought for over 7 years. “Dick” was BBSC president in 1958 and chaired many of the BBSC races during the 50’s & the earlier years of the 60’s. He headed the Bogus Basin Mitey Mite racing program for over 20 years. “Dick” was recognized for his many accomplishments, including the 2008 Coach Bill Everts Lifetime Service Award. His is survived by his wife Jean, his four children and the grandchildren. Funeral service was held November 12, 2010 at the Cathedral of the Rockies. I suggest you go to idahostatesman.com for additional details.
A bunch of us were in Mexico over Halloween and found it interesting to learn the difference between our holiday and the Mexicans Day of the Dead (Día de los Muertos). In Mexico, the holiday focuses on gatherings of family and friends to pray for and remember friends and family members who have died. The celebration occurs on November 2 and due to occurring shortly after Halloween, the Day of the Dead is sometimes thought to be a similar holiday. The staff from the hotel perform in cabaret shows at the nightclub across the street when they aren't acting as a bartender, waitress, or activity coordinators. This night they presented a great rendition of Michael Jackson’s “Thriller.” I was impressed and thoroughly entertained. Although Mexicans don’t dress up for Halloween, that didn’t stop three of our members, pictured here. When the lights came up after the show, there was immediately a line of Mexican people, adults and children, asking to have their picture taken with the crazy Americans, Los Loco Americanos. Clyde McNeal, Nancy Cenell and Alicia Culbertson were instant celebrities and have been immortalized in scrapbooks all over Mexico.

In a spur of the moment decision on an airplane heading for Puerto Vallarta, Pat and Bonnie decided to tie the knot. They had been planning to do so for some time, but decided why not make it official on a beach in Mexico with many of their friends present. The service was performed by the newly ordained “Reverend” Dave Kopet, fondly known as “Father Dave”. Well actually Dave is not ordained and they weren’t able to do the paperwork so the service wasn’t legal. But it was a reason to celebrate. An actual legal ceremony will follow here in Boise in December so family and other friends can join in on the celebration. Congratulations Bonnie and Pat!

Above: Pat and Bonnie enjoy their wedding day on the beach. A legal ceremony will follow in Boise sometime in December.

Help Us Grow the Sport by 1,000

by Gretchen Anderson
Bogus Basin spokeswoman

May I ask a favor? I need your help spread the word! At Bogus Basin, we are trying to increase the number of people who ski or snowboard by 1,000 this season.

We’ve lowered the price of our popular, nationally recognized, award-winning beginner program, the Passport. For $249 in the months of December and January, beginners can get four lessons, lifts and equipment while in the lessons and a season pass at graduation.

But wait! It gets better.

Passport graduates get to use the equipment the rest of the season. In February and March, the same perks are offered but at $229 and the complimentary season pass is good for the following season as well.

The Passport can be used to learn alpine, snowboarding or nordic disciplines. The nordic Passport is just $119. Skier and rider wannabes who are age 12+ can take advantage of the Passport. All they need to do is call Ruth in our Bogus Basin Ski & Snowboard School (208-332-5340) and register.

Be proud! Our valley boasts a 21% skier/rider population. That’s three times the national average! Let’s show the rest of the country that our numbers continue to grow!

Earliest Opening Day for Bogus Basin in Years

by Michael Bouton

Many of you must have been reciting the Ullr chant because the snow fall has been early and abundant! Bogus Basin opened on Thanksgiving, making it the earliest opening since the 1994-95 season, when Bogus opened on November 19.

For the past several seasons, Bogus Basin has opened well into December, including a December 17 opening date for the last two seasons. There have only been three November openings in the last decade. The most recent November opening occurred in the 2006-07 season, when the lifts began running on November 29. In the 2003-04 season, Bogus opened November 28, but had to close on November 30. The lifts resumed operation on December 14. November 28 was also the opening date for the 2001-02 season.

Weather forecasters have been predicting a cool, wet winter this year as the result of La Nina. So far, that appears to be coming true. Let’s hope the snow continues to fly! Have a great season!

VertiGals

The VertiGals is an informal group of women who get together to enjoy skiing/boarding with each other at Bogus Basin Ski Area. There are no memberships and no fees, and no profits are generated by its activities. All interested women skiers/boarders are welcome to participate.

The VertiGals do have certain women who help organize the VertiGals activities and who “lead” the various skiing/boarding groups on the mountain.

For more information, you can pick up the registration/release and hold harmless agreement at the Bogus Basin office at 2600 Bogus Basin Road. Additional information is listed on that form.

PrimeTimers Dinner

The PrimeTimers second annual Holiday Dinner is December 3, 2010 at the Arid Club in Boise. The party starts at 6pm. Price is $37 per person for dinner only. Drinks are extra. RSVP only. For more details, you can call Ben Doty at 869-6956 or Jim Carney at 484-1556.
The concepts behind tuning and waxing have been around for as long as we’ve strapped skis and boards to our feet. Whether you’re doing it for fun, exercise, love of the outdoors or all of the above, a well tuned and waxed ski can make your time on the snow more enjoyable.

Everyone can benefit from skis kept in good running condition. Let’s start with the edges: an edge provides the skier with grip on the various forms of snow and steepness of slopes that we encounter everyday. We rely on our edges to hold us through a turn from start to finish so we need that edge to be smooth and sharp in order to be effective. I believe smooth is more important than sharp. Run your fingers lightly down the edge of your skis. Do you feel burrs and a lot of inconsistency to the edge? They may still feel sharp, but an edge that is consistent from tip to tail is much more effective at holding than one that is not. For beginners, this can translate to learning at faster rate because it’s easier to understand how to carve today’s ski with a well tuned edge. For the more advanced skiers that are turning at higher rates of speed, this means better edge grip on steeper slopes.

The base of the ski is important for control of speed. If a base isn’t in the proper condition, the skis can be harder to maneuver through various situations. When a ski comes into contact with snow, a very thin layer of water forms between the ski and the snow. This layer creates suction between the two, potentially slowing you down. Take a look at the base of your skis. Proper bases are flat, scratch free and waxed for the current conditions. If you’ve had your skis stone ground recently, you may see tiny grooves similar to those seen on a record. Those little grooves help break the suction. Those grooves aren’t very useful, however, if the ski is not properly waxed for the conditions.

One of the more common things we hear in the shop is “don’t wax my skis, I don’t want to go too fast.” A properly waxed ski gives the skier better control and protects the base of the ski from dirt and contaminates. Keep in mind when we wax skis, we are conditioning the base with the wax and then scraping off any wax that did not get absorbed into the base. Leaving too much wax on your base can lead to inconsistent glide.

There are many types of wax out there for the many different types of snow, temperature and humidity. 99% of the population shouldn’t worry too much about this. A “universal” wax will work for most of the season at Bogus. There are days that get very cold up there and a harder wax will work better. During the spring when the snow is melting off a softer wax is more appropriate. Any way you look at it, if you’re waxing every 2-3 days, you and your skis are going to benefit from the results.

Stop by McU Sports and have one of our technicians take a look at your skis and give you an analysis of what would best suit you. Our state-of-the-art tuning shop can get your skis in ready condition for when the snow piles up.

*For brevity purposes: ski tuning=ski and board tuning.
